WINE PRESS

ESTABLISHED 1984

Oregon Wine Press — then named Oregon Wine Press Calendar — was launched in 1984 by Portland-area natives Richard Hopkins and Elaine Cohen. In 2006, the magazine was purchased by News-Register Publishing Co., a family-owned, fourth-generation publishing company located in McMinnville, Oregon. From its base in the lush Willamette Valley, OWP continues the long tradition of excellence established by its founders.

EDITORIAL STATEMENT

As Oregon's only wine-focused monthly magazine, OWP has been the leader in providing in-depth, comprehensive coverage of Oregon's wine industry for more than three decades.

WHY CHOOSE OWP?

Oregon's Only: Circulated throughout the Northwest and the nation, OWP gives advertisers a trusted, proven vehicle to reach Oregon's most devoted wine enthusiasts and tourists who visit our wine country.

Monthly Publication: OWP is a monthly magazine, so, unlike quarterly wine magazines in the area, our news and features are fresh and up to date. Advertising on a monthly basis in OWP will provide your company the greatest exposure and will qualify you for a frequency discount.

Editorial Content: OWP serves the entire state of Oregon with well-balanced coverage. We aim to bring all of the state's wine regions into the spotlight.

Large Circulation: OWP is a free publication available at more than 750 locations throughout Oregon and across the country; it is also available through paid subscription. Monthly distribution ranges from 25,000 to 30,000.

Competitive Pricing: Advertising rates in OWP are moderate for the impact generated.

Distinctive Graphic Design: OWP strives for its own distinctive look among its competitors. Our professional team of designers will design and produce your ad without charge. We'll work with you to create an instant visual connection with your potential customers.

Testimonials: As a testament to OWP, winemakers, winegrowers and avid readers stand behind our magazine. We're constantly reminded by readers how important it is to have a statewide publication devoted exclusively to Oregon wine.

TESTIMONIALS

READERS

“ I really enjoy the work that you guys do at the OWP. As you are certainly aware, it is nearly impossible to toe the line between consumer and industry audiences and to satisfy the needs of both in one publication. You and your staff absolutely nail it.

Bill Hooper, Paetra Wines

“ Great issue on dirt in the Oregon Wine Press! I am at a national meeting in Los Angeles with Greg Jones of Southern Oregon University — I am giving talks on the terroir in the Willamette Valley. I am showing everyone in our session about the Dirt Issue you did! It was wonderful. Great writers from the different areas. They captured the essence.

Dr. Scott Burns, Soil Expert, Portland State University

“ Keep up the great work! We are hoping to have more time in the future to visit your great state and enjoy many of your fine wineries. We're sure that with the aid of your publication we will be stirred to some fine, fun favorites of the state's wineries.”

William and Shari Howard, Fairbanks, Alaska

“ Your publication is very professionally presented. We always look forward to each issue. Being from Yamhill County, we feel a sense of pride in the quality of the coverage. Keep on!”

Jeff and Kathy Pearson, Carlton

“ I really enjoyed the Bell's Up issue of the OWP. It was full of information about wineries and projects I knew nothing about. It's nice to open the OWP and get information on the things you wonder about, or never knew existed. Good journalism.

Thomas Houseman, Anne Amie Vineyards

ADVERTISERS

“ OWP, thank you for always checking in with me in a timely manner, working with me on revisions, making me aware of upcoming opportunities and following up with me in person and online. You've been a great advertising partner!

Remy Drabkin, Remy Wines

“ We've been getting lots of great feedback related to the Oregon Wine Press [advertisement] for Savor Cannon Beach. It's clear how quickly folks open their issues! Thanks for the nice support. We're very excited about the upcoming festival!

Michelle Briggs Wedaman, Savor Cannon Beach

“ We thank OWP for being the voice of our industry through collaborative, educational and entertaining content. The publication has helped us share our story with the people that matter the most to us. Thank you, OWP, for being such a great partner for our winery.

Christine Collier, Willamette Valley Vineyards

“ I am interested in advertising in OWP because since the onset of my participation in the Oregon wine industry, I have considered them the most faithful, committed and informative publication in our state about our wine industry. In addition, they've always been creative in how to establish, keep and maintain industry participants, and wine aficionados interested in their monthly publications. I consider OWP a true partner to my winery and my winery's goals. I also consider OWP a true partner, and of great service to our most important audience, the wine drinkers.

Mauricio Collada Jr. MD, Cubanísimo Vineyards

“ Thank you for bending over backwards for your clients! I love OWP and pour through it monthly. I also include a copy in all my closing gift baskets welcoming my clients to paradise!! The WOW group will also be continual advertisers and supporters! Thank you truly for everything and especially your courteous follow-through.”

Meri Kerekanich, Kelly Group & Women of Willamette

“ We appreciate OWP so much we asked to become a distributor! Our associates, along with our customers, look forward to each monthly issue and connecting with the winegrape community. An advertiser as well, we've been very pleased with the response from our ad campaigns. Thank you for continuing to produce a quality publication backed by great customer service.”

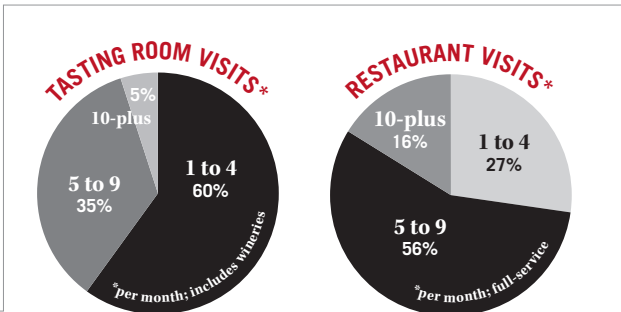

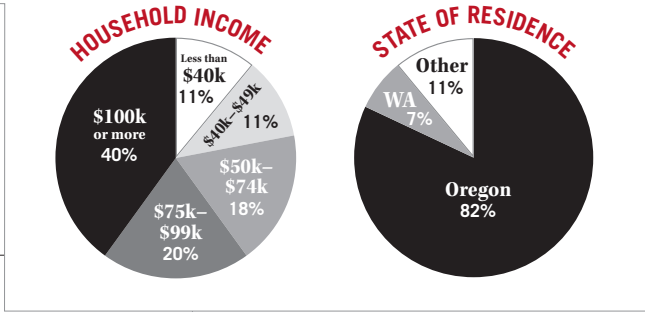

Lisa Gossett, Oregon Vineyard Supply

INDUSTRY LEADERS

“ I just read the OWP review of “Voodoo Vintners.” Thank you so much! It means so much to me. I'm actually getting a little misty reading it — it is so beautifully written. I have already heard from one winemaker's wife who read the review and wants to buy the book. I think your review might be the single most important one for this book because it will reach everyone in the Oregon wine community who cares about this (admittedly obscure) issue. I can't thank you enough. Thank you, thank you, thank you!”

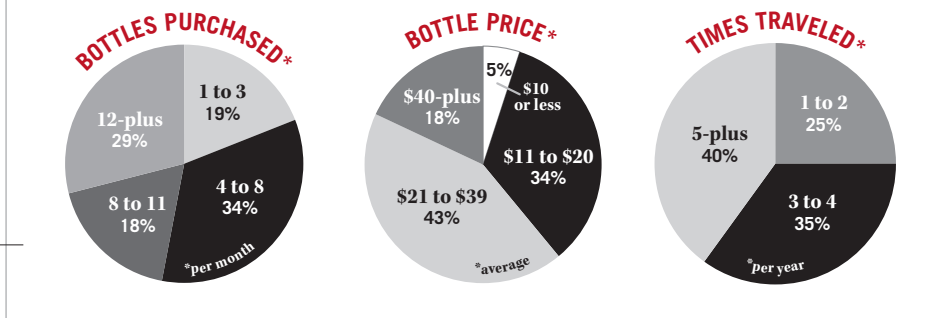

Katherine Cole, The Oregonian

TOP STORY: JUNE 2020

Family Legacy

PONZI HONORS FIVE DEFINING DECADES

BY MARK STOCK

It isn't exactly the half-century back Pinot Vineyards might have scripted, but the pioneering Oregon label is celebrating 50 nonetheless. The Willamette Valley winery turns 50 this year. Prior to the pandemic, there were celebratory plans involving special releases, large gatherings and festive tastings. Ponzi still plans to meet the milestone, albeit in a reformed fashion in keeping with the new normal. While unknowns loom large and the wine industry attempts to survive this difficult stretch, there are some certainties. For Ponzi, it's the winery's legacy, running deep and greatly impacting the Pacific Northwest wine conversation.

There are many chapters to the Ponzi winery story. From finding a New World home for lesser-known Old World grape varieties like Arneis and Dalcorno, to promoting diversity in the workplace and helping Chardonnay's resurgence in the Willamette Valley, the company has always been both involved and instrumental. Anna Maria Ponzi, part of the winery's second generation and now president of the company, offers Steve Jobs-like wisdom related to the label's success. "I think it's important to continue to think differently than others, to avoid getting caught up in trends and mainly continue to trust your gut," she says. "You have to be brave enough to try new things but ensure what you do aligns with your long-term goals."
